

Report on National Girl Child Day (24/01/2020)

National Girl Child Day is celebrated in India every year on January 24. It was started to spread awareness among people about all the inequalities faced by girls in the country and to promote awareness about the rights of the girl child. First initiated in 2008 by the Ministry of Women and Child Development, the National Girl Child Day aims to promote awareness on a range of issues including education, health, and nutrition. This day provides support, new opportunities to the girls in the country. It is celebrated to raise awareness among people about inequalities, discrimination, exploitation faced by the girls in the society.

Keeping this in mind an awareness program was conducted in Department of Civil Engineering, on regard of National Girl Child Day on 24th January 2020 in the Department Seminar Hall under Women's forum. Total 50no's of Civil Engineering students were actively participated in this event.

Ms.CH.Lakshmi Prasanna, Asst.Prof of Dept of Civil gave her valuable speech on how to save and protect the girl child. She made a slogan "Save the Girl Child". She insisted every institution should take part in the celebration and spread awareness among society to treat girl children equally and educate them.
